NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

General Order No. 2021-27

In Re: Application for Exemption from the Electronic Public Access Fees by Christopher Huhn

This matter is before the Court upon the application and request by Christopher Huhn for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

The Court finds that Christopher Huhn, an individual associated with a non-profit research institution, falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Mr. Huhn has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. Accordingly, Mr. Huhn shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court, to the extent such use is incurred in the course of researching the threat money mules – those who transfer or move illegally acquired money on behalf of someone else – represent to the financial services sector, the role they played in cyber-enabled fraud targeting COVID-19 relief programs, and the effectiveness of government efforts to disrupt money mule networks. Mr. Huhn shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations apply:

- I. this fee exemption applies only to Christopher Huhn, PACER Account No. 6912714, and is valid only for the purposes stated above;
- II. this fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this court that are available through the PACER system;
- III. by accepting this exemption, Mr. Huhn agrees not to sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;
- IV. Mr. Huhn is prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption, including redistribution via internet-based databases;
- V. this exemption is valid through March 24, 2023.

This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the Court at any time. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.

SO ORDERED on October 15, 2021.
