ATTORNEY CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that I have disclosed to my client(s) the anticipated fees and expenses that are likely to be incurred during each phase of these proceedings through final disposition. I have also separately estimated the fees and expenses reasonably expected to be incurred through an early successful mediation. To the extent that I anticipate seeking fees and/or costs from the other side based on the outcome of this litigation, I have communicated my fee and cost estimates to opposing counsel. I further certify that I have read the court's ADR Pamphlet, have discussed the available ADR options with my client, and have considered how this case might benefit from them.
